

Third station (First Topic)

Contributed by Bediuzzaman Said Nursi
Tuesday, 31 January 2006

First topic: According to the meaning of There is nothing that does not glorify Him with praise everything has many aspects like windows. opened on Almighty God. All truths contained in creation are based on the Divine Names. Each thing owes its existence and essential nature to one or several of God's Names. The variety of art in things and the sciences also are based on a Divine Name. For example philosophy in its true sense depends on the Name All Wise medicine on the Name All Healing and geometry and engineering are based on the Names All Determining. All Proportioning and All Giving of Exact Measure.